Comments : Jin Wei is very generous towards his friends and has built better relationships with his classmates in Semester 2. He has also been very helpful to his peers. However, he still needs to learn how to control his spontaneity. He has very good recall skills which he should tap on together with his capability to excel in his studies.

I'm very happy that he has achieved this result for his Primary 1 result. I'm so glad that I have enrolled him in MRC Learning Centre (Downtown East). I have seen a lot of improvement since he has been study here in Kindergarten 2. Thank you.
